17.7 FORCE Technology does not guarantee that the Product as a whole (including software, firmware, and hardware) is free of any defects or may be used without interruption.

17.8 If special components are used, the warranty period for such components will correspond to the warranty period granted to FORCE Technology by its suppliers.

17.15 The Deliverable shall be covered solely by the warranty set out in this clause 17 and any warranties explicitly provided in the Agreement. The Deliverable shall not be deemed to be covered by any other warranty or guarantee, including with respect to marketability, suitability, fitness for a specific purpose, etc., irrespective of whether the Customer may have mentioned such warranty or guarantee.

18.4 If it is not possible to take remedial action as set out in clause 18.3 above at a price and on terms which FORCE Technology deems reasonable, FORCE Technology shall refund an amount to the Customer corresponding to the Customer's payment for the licence for the relevant part of the Software against the Customer, at FORCE Technology's written request and for the account of FORCE Technology, returning to FORCE Technology the relevant part of the Software including related documentation.

18.5 FORCE Technology's obligations as set out in this clause 18 shall not apply to, and FORCE Technology shall not be liable for, infringement of third-party intellectual property rights caused by:

- (a) use of the Software in combination with other software, documentation or equipment if the infringement would otherwise not have existed;
- (b) modification of the Software not performed by FORCE Technology if the infringement would otherwise not have existed;
- (c) use of a version or release of the Software other than the most recent version or release after FORCE Technology has requested that the Customer use the most recent version or release due to alleged infringement of third-party intellectual property rights if the infringement would otherwise not have existed.

20.6 FORCE Technology is not liable for any statement, declaration, representation or estimate which is evidently a result of an assessment based on discretion, unless it may be documented that such assessment based on discretion was incomplete based on general knowledge or technology in the relevant industry at the time of provision of the Deliverable.

20.7 FORCE Technology shall not incur product liability for any damage or loss, except in the event the damage or loss was caused by a defect in the Product causing the damage or loss, and such defect existed at the time of delivery and was due to error or neglect on the part of FORCE Technology when the Product was manufactured.

21.5 Unless the Customer's breach, cf. clause 21.1, is due to Force Majeure, FORCE Technology may specify a reasonable time limit for the Customer's performance of its obligations. If the Customer fails to accommodate the time limit and this is not due to circumstances for which FORCE Technology is liable, FORCE Technology may terminate the Agreement for breach.
